Gold Rush Team Leader Description

Gold Rush Team Leaders are members of the Office of New Student & Family Services (NSFS). Team Leaders are responsible for providing support to the Gold Rush program, coordinating publicity, and staffing the various programs and activities offered during Gold Rush. Furthermore, Team Leaders take an active role in leading the Gold Rush Leaders at the many events and programs offered during Gold Rush. Team Leaders are expected to provide leadership, direction and vision for the Gold Rush Leaders. Team Leaders are a crucial component for the success of Gold Rush. A Team Leader must be flexible and always ready to accept new tasks and take on additional responsibility. This is an excellent opportunity for students to develop leadership skills and engage with the student body. The Team Leaders will be required to work a specific number of hours after the finalized hired date and selected Gold Rush scheduled events at the beginning of fall semester (August 20-29, 2021). Team Leaders report directly to the Gold Rush Student Coordinators, and indirectly to the Graduate Assistant and Assistant Director for New Student & Family Services.
